

TRADING UPDATE

Dreamscape Networks Limited (ASX: DN8) provides the following commentary in light of the recent sharp decline in the Company's share price to ensure investors are acting on an informed basis.

In the second quarter, due to finish on 31 December 2018, the Company can advise that Group Bookings are showing similar growth year on year. The company estimates that Group Bookings for the first half of this financial year will be in the order of 20% higher than the same period last year. The increased Group Bookings are also expected to translate to similarly higher Adjusted EBITDA for the first half compared to the comparative period.

The Company will provide a further update following the close of the first half and compilation of management accounts for December 2018.
