Leading online solutions provider Crazy Domains joins the zipPay platform

zipMoney Limited (ASX: ZML) (“zipMoney”) is pleased to announce that Crazy Domains (operated by Dreamscape Networks Limited - ASX: DN8), Australia’s leading domain name, website hosting and online solutions provider, has joined the zipPay platform.

Founded in 2000, Crazy Domains is listed on the ASX and one of the fastest growing domain name registrars in Australia, New Zealand, Asia, Europe, India and the UAE. The company owns Australia's largest ".au" domain registration brand, with a 30% market share, 1.6 million registered domain names and hosting more than 270,000 websites.

With a broad and ever-expanding selection of solutions, Crazy Domains customers can now checkout with zipPay and pay in interest-free instalments for their domain names, email and website hosting, as well as online solutions and package offerings.

zipMoney CEO and Managing Director, Larry Diamond, said “We are excited to bring another digital innovator onto the payments platform. Our new payments API caters brilliantly for the products and services offered by Crazy Domains from individual purchases to recurring subscription billings.

“We look forward to a broader partnership that stretches beyond payments. We see the potential for a more strategic channel partnership in which Crazy Domains’ business clients benefit from offering deferred payment options to their customers. This innovation would take advantage of a network effect that would benefit many Australian businesses and consumers.”

Crazy Domains COO Gavin Gibson said: “In working with the Small to Medium Business sector, helping them establish, maintain and grow their online presence, we are all too aware of the cash flow challenges SMB’s can encounter.

“Whether our customers are just starting their business or starting their business’s online journey, it is our ambition to partner with them to provide affordable online solutions. Through zipMoney’s ‘pay later’ offering we are taking this service to the next level, by allowing customers to engage with our products, get instant access and benefits and pay later through the zipPay platform.”

This is an exciting development for zipMoney as it continues to add digital brands to the platform.
