

Dreamscape Networks

Now listed and trading on ASX Following highly successful IPO

Dreamscape Networks Ltd. is now publicly listed on the ASX. The company owns Crazy Domains, Australia's top domain brand, which has a market share of 34% of all new .au registrations.

The online solutions provider launched its highly successful IPO with investment spread across institutional funds as well as retail platforms Equitise and OnMarketBookBuilds, which both closed and noted as oversubscribed following enthusiastic interest from investors. The IPO raised A$25 million for the company.

The company is now listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) with the code DN8. Dreamscape celebrated the launch on 7 December across all its offices in Dubai, the Philippines, Ukraine and Australia.

Dreamscape's ASX listing ushers in new benefits for the company's customers around the globe. Among these are investment in infrastructure, improved services and customer experience, as well as improved and refreshed products.

Through its primary brand, Crazy Domains, and guided by growth initiatives, it intends to continue striving towards its mantra of making it easier for people to succeed online.

Dreamscape Networks Limited has acquired the parent company of Dreamscape Networks FZ-LLC. The company's brands - Crazy Domains, Aust Domains and Cheap Domains - continue to be owned by the same entity.

The company's board and management consists of highly experienced professionals who will be at the helm to lead Dreamscape forward to a bigger future.

Peter James serves as Non-Executive Chairman, with his extensive experience at iiNet and on the board of Nearmap and Macquarie Telecom.

Mark Evans is CEO and Managing Director, with over 20 years of experience running and managing successful businesses.

COO and Executive Director Gavin Gibson brings over 15 years of strong IT experience, 9 of those with the company.

Evan Cross as Non-Executive Director will be bringing significant corporate acquisition experience.

Group Finance Executive and Company Secretary Tony Sparks has over 25 years' experience as a Chartered Accountant and Senior Executive, as well as 10 years as ASX Company Secretary.

Completing the board is Non-Executive Director Michael Malone, the founder of iiNet, who built his company to over 1.5 billion dollars before selling out to TPG. Michael completed over 40 acquisitions at iiNet, and Dreamscape will be utilising his wealth of knowledge and experience in the acquisition area on the path to growth.

Dreamscape will be reinforced by this strong leadership structure backed by what it believes to be best in world technical support, customer care and sales centre in the Philippines, as well as a significant team of technical and operational experts. This will go a long way to helping the company expand influence and reach within lucrative markets and opportunities.

Dreamscape Networks Limited always has an eye towards best-in-world service, providing simple and innovative solutions that allow businesses to take the best steps forward online.

Visit www.dreamscapenetworks.com to know more about the company and the listing, and its host of transformative online solutions.

